

Cátedra Paulo Freire

Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary

Cátedra* Paulo Freire: Liberating Hope within a Traumatized World March 23-25, 2017 | Keynote Address by Dr. Antonia Darder

Sponsored by the Hispanic-Latino/a Center at Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary, the 2017 Cátedra Paulo Freire will explore the notion of hope from a variety of angles identifying where small seeds of hope are germinating and multiplying despite the current desolate and hardened soils of our communities and cities. In a world traumatized by practices of marginalization and violence against individuals, communities, and the environment, participants will be invited to expand their horizons by imagining new possibilities of living in solidarity with one another.

Seminar speakers will include Garrett-Evangelical professors Dr. Nancy Bedford, Dr. Angela Cowser, and Dr. Timothy Eberhart. In their seminars they will address hope through the lens of ecology, power, violence and trauma, and Latin American theology.

Dr. Antonia Darder will deliver the keynote address at the 2017 Cátedra Paulo Freire. Darder, an internationally recognized Freireian scholar, holds the Leavey Presidential Chair of Ethics and Moral Leadership at Loyola Marymount University, Los Angeles, and is Professor Emerita of Education Policy, Organization, and Leadership at the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign. Her scholarship focuses on issues of racism, political economy, education, social justice, and society.

We encourage you to save the date and join us for the 2017 Cátedra Paulo Freire! Registration will open in January 2017. For more information, including a schedule of events, go to Garrett.edu/Catedra.
