

Cátedra Paulo Freire

MARCH 14 -15, 2019

GARRETT-EVANGELICAL
THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Unearthing the Bonds that Hold Us Together: Pedagogy of Liberation and Theology of Liberation in Dialogue

Keynote Speakers

Dr. Peter McLaren

Distinguished Professor in Critical Studies at Chapman University, Co-Director of The Paulo Freire Democratic Project, and International Ambassador for Global Ethics and Social Justice

In the light of the current global context of fundamentalisms and the rise of totalitarian regimes, the Cátedra Paulo Freire 2019 Conference will bring into dialogue the Pedagogy of Liberation and the Theology of Liberation to uncover the bonds that can still hold us together in hope and responsibility. Both are counter-narratives that emerged within the dramatic and plural universe of the poor and marginalized, fostering a critical, liberating, and relentless view of the world to address the urgencies of our times.

Dr. Daniel Schipani

Professor Emeritus of Pastoral Care and Counseling at Anabaptist Mennonite Biblical Seminary, Affiliate Professor at McCormick Theological Seminary and San Francisco Theological Seminary

Respondents

Dr. Nancy Bedford

Georgia Harkness Professor of Applied Theology at Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary

Dr. W. Anne Joh

Professor of Theology and Culture at Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary
