

A growing chasm exists in democracies around the world today in which people of diverse religious and spiritual persuasions find it increasingly difficult to communicate across their differences in order to live together in a common civil society. We will address varieties of religious and spiritual education that promote dialogue across these deep and apparently incommensurable divisions.

1-3 November
Holiday Inn International Airport
Toronto, Ontario

REA Annual Meeting 2019 coexistence in divided societies

Pedagogies, of the Sacred,
of Difference, and of Hope.

local on-site registration available $50 per half-day (excludes meals)

<http://religionseducation.net/rea2019>

The Religious Education Association (REA) is an Association of Professors, Practitioners, and Researchers in Religious Education

