

Keenan Chair in Religious Education

The Faculty of Theology of the University of St. Michael's College invites applications and nominations for the tenure-stream Patrick and Barbara Keenan Chair in Religious Education to begin 1 July 2020. Rank will either be at Associate or Full Professor depending upon the candidate's qualifications. The ability to teach at least in one secondary area (for example, Catholic social ethics, liturgy, feminist theology, etc.) would be advantageous. The successful applicant will teach the core courses for the Master of Religious Education program as well as courses that will also serve the MTS and MDiv programs. The successful applicant will teach and supervise graduate students, if qualified, through the Graduate Centre in the Toronto School of Theology.

Applicants must have a PhD in theological studies (or an equivalent degree), evidence of a strong performance in teaching, and should have a strong publication record in religious education. The application dossier must include evidence of excellence in research publications and strong evidence of a sustainable research agenda. Preference will be given to candidates who have competence, or who are pursuing a research agenda, in experiential learning or instructional technologies. The successful applicant will be supportive of the mission of the University of St Michael's College, and will have some familiarity with Catholic primary and secondary education in a Canadian context.

St. Michael's is a Roman Catholic Faculty of Theology in the Toronto School of Theology, an ecumenical federation of seven theological schools affiliated with the University of Toronto. The Faculty is committed to theological teaching and research that is interdisciplinary, ecumenical and sensitive to multi-faith and multicultural contexts. We seek to form students for service in Church and society through faithful and rigorous scholarship grounded in the Catholic intellectual tradition. For more details about the Faculty, see <http://stmikes.utoronto.ca/theology>. Details of the University of St Michael's College can be found at <http://stmikes.utoronto.ca> and details about the Toronto School of Theology are at <http://www.tst.edu>.

To apply, please send as email attachments a letter of application, a curriculum vitae, evidence of teaching experience, and three names (and contact details) of referees, to usmc.deanoftheology@utoronto.ca. Please address the correspondence to: James R. Ginther, Dean, Faculty of Theology, University of St. Michael's College, 81 St Mary Street, Toronto, ON M5S 1J4 Canada. Nominations may also be sent to the attention of Dean Ginther.

Review of applications will begin on 8 November 2019.

We thank all applicants for their interest. Only those considered for an interview will be contacted.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. Citizens of the USA, Mexico, and Chile may be appointed to this position under their country's relevant trade agreement with Canada.

The University of St. Michael's College is strongly committed to diversity within its community and especially welcomes applications from racialized persons/persons of colour, women, Indigenous/Aboriginal people of North America, persons with disabilities, LBGTQ persons, people who take a religiously informed view of human experience, and others who may contribute to further diversification of ideas. If you require accessibility accommodation, please contact the Human Resources Officer at 416-926-7118 or hr.stmikes@utoronto.ca

DRAFT