SLIDE 1: HOW DO YOU DO JUSTICE?

Even if you think your work does not directly address social justice as a concept, your findings and ideas may apply to social justice purposes. Let's come together and explore! The 2021 Association for Moral Education Conference, online in November.

SLIDE 2: ARROW DOWN / INJUSTICE

We live in a time of societal downdrafts that negate or deprive basic human rights.
Too many “disses”—DISparity, DISregard, DIScrimination.
Too many “ins”—INEquality, INequity.
How have injustices arisen and become entrenched?
Through psychological biases, or social networks, or cultural norms?
Let's come together and find out!

SLIDE 3: ARROW RIGHT / CHANGE

There is momentum for change.
Turning corners by protesting against marginalization and oppression.
DEbiasing and DEfeating prior harms.
COUNTERing existing unproductive norms.
Seeking ANTIIdotes to ongoing social ills.
How does effective change happen?
Let's come together and innovate!

SLIDE 4: ARROW UP / JUSTICE

Let's catalyze societies toward sustainable equity through working together.

Collaboration, COMpassion, CONfidence to move forward.

ADvancing and APpreciating our aims for change.

TRANSforming desperation into aspiration, hope into harmony.

How can moral imagination, reasoning, humility, perseverance, and dialogue design an uplifting future?

When differences are strengths, ethical reasoning offers opportunities, ideals become shared purposes, and virtuous practices polish character and trust.

SLIDE 5: CROSS / EDUCATION

Let's come together, scholars of social justice and moral education, to cross professional paths, to intersect expertise, to add insight.

SLIDE 6: DIAMOND / MORAL EDUCATION

Let's take a multifaceted view—as scholars, students, teachers, activists—to examine powerful ideas that speak toward more inclusive and just lives.

SLIDE 7: CIRCLE / MORAL EDUCATION FOR SOCIAL JUSTICE
