Job Description/Advertisement

Position in Christian Spirituality

Yale Divinity School invites applications for a tenure-track/tenured faculty position in Christian Spirituality to begin July 1, 2022. The rank of the appointment is open. Yale Divinity School provides an ecumenical environment in which students are prepared for ordained and lay ministry in diverse Christian churches and for a wide range of professional careers, including additional advanced degrees in academic and professional schools, not-for-profit work, and public service.

Candidates must hold (or be on the verge of completing) a Ph.D. or equivalent degree in a directly related field and have strong competence as an instructor. The successful candidate will be a skilled researcher and practitioner with expertise in the field of Christian Spirituality, as well as having a demonstrated record of contributions to the field relevant to practical theology. The subfield within this specialization is open. Competence in the practice of spirituality in a particular social context and/or in an additional religious tradition are welcomed.

A letter of application with curriculum vitae and three letters of reference should be submitted online at <http://apply.interfolio.com/97039>. Review of applications will begin on November 1, 2021. We will accept applications until the position is filled.

Yale University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity employer. Yale values diversity in its faculty, staff, and students and especially encourages applications from women and gender-nonconforming persons, persons with disabilities, protected veterans, and underrepresented minorities.
