

The world is on fire: we know it in our bones and feel it in our hearts. Science, sociology and other disciplines describe dire scenarios as oceans rise, cities warm, and species decline. We know humanity's most vulnerable populations will suffer most severely. These challenging times demand our attention as religious educators, in and out of institutions, to mitigate harm when possible, create new rituals of grief and lament when needed, and stir human creativity on behalf of all beings.

8-12 July
Online

REA Annual Meeting 2024

Dear Earth

Innovating Religious Education Through the Lens of Climate Justice

For more information and to read the Call for Proposals, please visit

religionseducation.net/rea2024

The Religious Education Association (REA) is an Association of Professors, Practitioners, and Researchers in Religious Education
We are an interfaith organization open to all

