

Digital technology has not only revolutionized how we learn but has also sparked critical inquiries into the nature of humanity itself. What distinguishes human intelligence from artificial intelligence? How are community, solidarity, and religious identity being redefined? What defines the essence of human existence amidst the rise of robotics and automation?

7-11 July
Online

REA Annual Meeting 2025

Navigating Humanity

Technology, Ethics, and the future of Religious Education

For more information and to read the Call for Proposals, please visit

religiouseducation.net/rea2025

The Religious Education Association (REA) is an Association of Professors, Practitioners, and Researchers in Religious Education
We are an interfaith organization open to all

